Tour Vandeleur Walled Garden

Walk, explore, and relax in the enchanted Vandeleur Walled Garden, one of County Clare's most beautiful botanical tributes to Ireland's rich natural history. Thriving behind old stone walls, this charming medley of plants, mazes, and water features provide a fascinating glimpse into the past.

Enjoy the interpretative experience in the stable block, discover local prints in the gift shop, or browse the unique plants for sale - there's something for everyone! Find out more: vandeleurwalledgarden.ie

Enjoy Lunch at Woodland Bistro

Why not treat yourself to a delicious meal at the Woodland Bistro during your visit to the garden? With a menu that's full of fantastic choices, you're sure to find the perfect option for you.

Enjoy hearty breakfasts, delicious lunches, refreshing beverages, and homemade goods. From the savory sandwiches to the delectable desserts, every dish is crafted with care and precision, using only the finest ingredients available. Find out more: vandeleurwalledgarden.ie

Discover Dolphins from Kilrush

Dolphin Discovery in Kilrush offers visitors an exciting and unique wildlife adventure on the Wild Atlantic Way. Travel along the majestic Shannon Estuary, home to Europe's largest group of bottlenose dolphins, to enjoy close encounters with the dolphins in their natural environment!

The trip, which takes 2-2.5 hours, is also an ideal way to enjoy panoramic views of the beautiful Shannon Estuary. Find out more: discoverdolphins.ie

Explore Scattery Island

Once home to the Shannon River pilots, Scattery Island offers a wonderful visitor experience for both young and old. Located within the tranquil waters of the Shannon Estuary, it is a truly unique experience on the renowned Wild Atlantic Way. Visitors can bask in the unspoilt natural beauty of the uninhabited island and explore its fascinating historical sites, which include a round tower, five churches, a cathedral, a Napoleonic artillery battery, and a lighthouse.
